PRESENTATION OF CERTIFICATES

Distinguished Divines and Others at the Theological Seminary,

SERVICES IN CHAPEL.

Right Rev. Bishop Gibson, President of Seminary, and Professors Occupy Seats in Choir.

With the presentation of certificates of graduation to six students and a number of honorary degrees to distinguished divines of the Episcopal Church in various parts of the United States and missionary fields, the ninety-first session of the Episcopal Theological Seminary of Virginia was brought to a close this morning. The ceremonies were held in the chapel which was filled with visiting clergymen. The Rt. Rev. Bishop Gibson, of Virginia, president of the Seminary, and the professors in their gowns and hoods, occupied seats in the choir.

Certificates of graduation were awarded to the following: Guy Edson Kagey, Wyoming; George Leckonby, Kentucky; Mattias Madert, West Virginia; Richard Louis Merryman, West Virginia; Sidney Thomas Ruck, Virginia and Walter Greenhow Parker, A. B. Virginia.

The degree of Bachelor of Divinity was conferred upon the Rev. George MacLaren Bryden, B. A., of King George county, Va.; the Rev. Bowyer Campbell, missionary to China; the Rev. Conrad Harrison Godwin, M. A., missionary to China; the Rev. James Luther Martin, M. A., Frostburg, Md; and the Rev. Paul Micou, M. A., now of Byrn Marr, Pa., secretary of the Students' Volunteer Movement of the Episcopal Church.

The following bishops and clergy received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from the board of trustees: The Rt. Rev. William Theodotus Capers, bishop of West Texts, the Rt. Rev. John Pouty Tyler, of the missionary district of North Dakota, the Rev. David W. Howard, of St. Luke's Church, Norfolk, Va., and the Rev. John Gow Meem, missionary to Brazil.

An earnest address to the graduation class was delivered by the Rev. C. Braxton Bryan, D. D., of Grace Church, Petersburg, Va.

Shortly after the commencement exercises came to an end the annual meeting of the Alumni Association was held. The Rev. William M. Dame, of Baltimore, presided in the absence of the president, Bishop Peterkin. An essay was read by the Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin, of Rochester, on the life and work of Bishop Moore, of Virginia. Dinner took place in the refectory of the Seminary, at 1:30 o'clock. A handsome portrait of Bishop Randolph, of Southern Virginia, was presented to the Seminary during the meeting of the alumni.

NEWSPAPER MACHINERY.

A $4,750,000 Concern Chartered in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., June 4.—The Wood Newspaper Machinery Corporation, with a capital stock of $4,750,000, has been granted a charter by the State Corporation Commission. It is empowered to own 100,000 acres of land at one time and to manufacture and repair typesetting machinery and printing presses. The temporary incorporators are local men.

Andrew D. Christian is president; Thomas B. Gay, vice president; Ernest B. Flippen, secretary, and H. H. Chaulkley, treasurer. The promoters are thought to be New York capitalists who are backing the latest invention of Henry Wise Wood, who recently gave a demonstration in New York of ingenious devices which will more than double present printing output of presses.

The corporation is also permitted to buy, sell and mine minerals, to build mills and factories and all such things not inhibited by law.

THE CONFEDERATE MONUMENT.

At this Westminister Abbey,
From rise to set of sun,
Blue and Gray with fragrant flowers,
Shall march through Arlington,
And on the graves of heroes
Shall plant sweet roses bright,
To glisten in the sunshine,
With weeping dews of night.

I hear thir spirits singing,
In bivouacs above,
Around the heavenly camp fires,
While everlasting love,
As perfume from sweet flowers,
Shall ever more increase,
And saints and angels linger
In pure celestial peace.

This monument erected
To the valor of the Gray,
Shall shine adown the ages,
Unto eternal day,
And tell to all the nations,
The victor's glorious plan,
To make of every freeman
A true American.

The daughters of the sunny South,
With patriotic pride,
Secured this monumental fund,
For heroes who have died
For what they thought was truly right,
Their honor and their State,
A band of brilliant fighters,
Testing the laws of fate.

The Old Dominion triumphs,
In the glory of this day,
By this classic monument
In honor of the Gray,
Teaching the lasting lesson,
That this Union is secure,
And those who stand united,
Shall evermore endure.

We now must cling together
In this proud country free,
Where nothing can disturb us
In our march from sea to sea,
And through the coming ages,
While waters flash and flow,
Stand until the crack of doom,
By the Doctrine of Monroe!

This great republic is the wall
That monarchy can't climb,
And built for all the people,
To test all tide and time,
While potentates and princes
With every secret breath
May wish for our destruction,
Would glory in our death.

The victor and the vanquished
Rest here in peaceful gloom,
With flowers and trees above them
Equal in their earthly bloom,
With Stars and Stripes still waving
In honor of their clay,
Great American heroes,
Once clad in Blue and Gray.

Yet, while the North and South are one,
Her sons of Blue and Gray
Shall still defend that banner
In its universal sway,
And, like the boys of '61,
Shall fight as true and free
As those who battled at the front
With Glorious Grant and Lee!

SENTENCED TO DEATH; FREED.

Supreme Court Throws out Alleged Confession of Virginian.

Petersburg, Va., June 4.—Emanuel Jackson, convicted months ago in the Sussex County Court of the murder of Andrew Dunn and sentenced to the electric chair, was released yesterday.

Shortly after being sentenced Jackson was taken to the penitentiary. His execution was stayed, however, by an appeal to the Supreme Court, which reversed the decision of the lower court and granted a new trial.

The Commonwealth's Attorney, William Cocke, could produce no new evidence, the Supreme Court having decided that an alleged confession of Jackson's could not be used against him. Sheriff J. J. Faison, of Sussex county, brought the prisoner from Richmond yesterday morning. He was taken before Judge J. F. West, at Emporia, Greenville county, a nolle prosequi was entered and Jackson was discharged.

A telegram from Park City, Utah, says the auto party of Woodward Duke, son of Brodie Duke, the American tobacco magnate, was wrecked near there yesterday and young Duke was killed.

MOVEMENT FOR CHEAPER BOOKS

Superintendent Stearnes Combats Publishers' Statements.

HIS INVESTIGATION.

Learns Richmond House Offering to Do Work is Employed by Firms Who Want the Contract.

Richmond, June 4.—Superintendent R. C. Stearnes, chairman of the school book investigation, committee of the State Board of Education, has obtained what he believes to be evidence that will utterly disprove the publishers' arguments against the State Printing books. Mr. Stearnes has secured bids for printing books from rented plates from the Richmond firm, which at present prints thousands of school books annually for four of the largest publishing houses in the United States. According to the contract offered by this printer, school books can be furnished to the pupils at one-third less than current prices in Virginia.

At the recent hearing granted the publishers by the State Board of Education seven of the largest publishers in the country gave their reasons for declining to rent book plates to Virginia for the printing of textbooks by a private printer. Seven other publishing house have offered to rent plates to the board, but the seven who declined are the publishers of many books desired by the board for use in Virginia.

One after another, at the hearing, the seven publishers arose, and ridiculed the printing of textbooks by the State on the grounds that the work would be of a vastly inferior nature.

In view of the great stress laid on this point by the publishers, Mr. Stearnes instigated a quiet investigation of where the books published by these seven houses were printed. To his astonishment, he discovered that four of these seven houses have their books printed and bound by the same Richmond concern which has offered to make books for the board from the rented plates.

"If this Richmond publisher does good enough work for the publishing houses," said Mr. Stearnes, "I see no reason why he should not produce finished books for the State Board of Education. He will be using the same book plates that he uses now."

The special committees of the board are proceeding steadily with the plans to rent book plates and print the textbooks for the Virginia public schools by contract with a private printer.

FEED STOREHOUSE AFIRE.

Structure on South Patrick Street, Badly Damaged Last Night.

The alarm of fire about half-past ten o'clock last night was caused by the discovery of a blaze in a building used for the storage of feed by J. F. Burroughs' Son, on the east side of Patrick street, near Franklin, just outside the corporate limits.

The fire department, which was soon on hand and at work, managed to keep the fire from spreading and confined it closely, hence most of the damage which resulted was within the structure. The contents were virtually destroyed. The members of the fire department remained upon the scene about an hour.

Several years ago a disastrous fire occurred at the same place which wiped out several buildings used by the late T. F. Burroughs & Sons.

The firm subequently removed their business to the Strand, between King and Prince streets.

GETS $14 ON FORGED CHECK.

Slick Stranger Secures Money From Office of DeWilton Aitcheson.

A slick stranger, who gave his name as Henry Baker, secured $14 from the firm of DeWilton Aitcheson, coal and wood dealers, yesterday afternoon. About five o'clock the man, who was dressed in overalls, entered the office and ordered half a cord of wood to be sent to his home, 814 Queen street. He tendered a check for $17.50, signed by Julian D. Knight, to the order of Henry Baker, in payment. The cashier gave the man $14 change. Later in the day a driver who had attempted to deliver the wood returned with the information that no person by the name of Baker could be found at 814 Queen street. Mr. Aitcheson telephoned Mr. Knight and found that the check was a forgery.

HELP WANTED—Girls at the Banner Steam Laundry.

OVER $35,000 THIS MORNING

Change in Figures of Hospital Board Hailed With Delight.

WORKING FOR $50,000.

Alexandria and Fairfax Counties and Washington Have Shown Generosity in the Movement.

The change in the board this morning brings the hospital fund over $35,000 mark, which together with the $5,000 that will be appropriated by the City, the Board of Alderman having again yesterday unanimously passed the new bill making the appropriation, carries the hospital thermometer over the forty thousand dollar mark, and everyone connected with the work is exceedingly gratified as every citizen of Alexandria should also be.

The Executive Committee will complete its work and turn over the contributions to the Trustees of the Hospital on next Wednesday and they would like to be able to hand over $50,000 and therefore again urge all who have not heretofore contributed to send in their pledges and contributions.

When it is remembered that out of our 16,000 or 17,000 people that less than 1,500 including our young friends of the schools have contributed to the fund the large sum secured it seems that the committee is not too urgent in requesting the remaining 14,000 or 15,000 people of Alexandria, who have not contributed and who have a deep interest in this work as those who have made up the large sum secured should make up the remaining $9,000 and odd dollars.

It would be a great credit to the City of Alexandria if on next Wednesday their committee could turn over to the Trustees of the Hospital contributions amounting to $50,000.

Too much praise cannot be given to our neighbors in Fairfax and Alexandria Counties and Washington City who have been very liberal in their contributions toward this great work but there are many citizens both in the county and City of Washington who have not contributed to this fund but who doubtless would if their attention were called to the matter. Letters will be sent out from headquarters not only to our citizens, but to those in the county and in Washington, directing their attention to the fact that less than $10,000 is now needed and if the contributions are promptly sent in, this amount can be raised before next Wednesday.

The various factory employees should remember that up to the present time only one factory has made a factory contribution which amounted to $120.00, from the employees of the Corby Bakery. The employees of every factory in the City ought to show their patriotism by subscribing a small sum to this fund. For example if there are fifty men employed in a factory, payment of ten cents per month for ten months by each of them would mean a contribution of $50.00.

Mother's Terrible Deed.

Long Beach, Cal., June 4,—Local authorities began an investigation today into the death of Mrs. Lena Raab, twenty-nine years old, and her two daughters, Lena, six years old, and Lillian, fifteen months old. All three were found late last night in their home with their throats cut.

Mrs. Raab left a note written in German in which, according to the police, she attributed her approaching motherhood to Dr. Walter B. Hill, a prominent Long Beach physician, and declared her intention of killing the children and herself.

Dr. Hill was taken into custody. He denied the charge.

Engine Turns Turtle.

Henderson, N. C., June 4.—A very serious railroad accident occurred here at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon as the Southern train was on its way to Oxford. The engine turned turtle near a crossing and was demolished. None of the passengers were injured, but Engineer Tyler was so seriously hurt he had to be removed to the hospital. It is said a bank of earth, which was left on the roadbed near the rail, caused the engine to leave the tracks.

Havana, June 4.—General Ernesto Ashert, former governor, of Havana, province, and Eugenio Arias, a former member of the house of representatives, were sentenced by the Supreme Court to twelve years' imprisonment for the killing in July 1913, of General Armando Riva, chief of the national police.

George H. Luchsinger, president of the Humboldt Savings Bank, one of the largest financial institutions in San Francisco, committed suicide yesterday by inhaling gas. Financial worry was given as the cause. Officers and directors of the bank issued a statement saying that an examination of the accounts of the institutions showed everything to be in good condition.

SLOW PROGRESS OF CONFERENCE

Reported Disagreement Between Villa and Carranza is Denied.

MAY REVERSE POLICY.

Mediators at Niagara Falls Still Awaiting Carranza's Reply—Outcome is Uncertain.

Washington, June 4.—General Carranza and the constitutionalists of northern Mexico are seriously considering entering upon the mediation plans of the A. B. C. powers.

General Carranza, first chief of the constitutionalist forces, realizes the seriousness of the situation and the importance of his next move with respect to mediation. Consequently he will probably take several days in consideration before making what will be his final decision.

This statement was made today by the constitutionalist junta here.

Well authenticated reports that the long expected split between Carranza and Villa has materialized in the appointment of General Nadero to succeed Villa in supreme command are vehemently denied by the junta.

Niagara Falls, Ontario, June 4.—Whether the United States would be led to reverse its policy regarding the constitutionalists, should they refuse to participate in the Niagara peace parleys, and find means of forcing General Carranza to recognize a strong provisional government which might be decided upon, was one of the questions growing out of the situation presented here today.

The constitutionalists may now make or mar prospects of peace in Mexico. They must still agree to the declaration of an armistice and to the discussion of internal problems, but the way is open for them to enter the conference. A reply to the last communication sent to the constitutionalists is anxiously awaited today.

Boston, June 4.—Upon the news that her mother, Mrs. Jennie May Eaton had remarried D. Henry Ainsworth, her first husband, in Washington, came the publication today of telegram from Dorothy Ainsworth, her daughter, that she would probably marry within a year.

Miss Ainsworth, who, though only seventeen, is said already to have rejected seventeen suitors, wired from Colonial Beach, Va., that she is now seriously considering four propositions, and probably will take one soon.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

A Russian named Denis Haletzky is being tried in Krasnoyarsk, Siberia on a charge of murdering twelve girls whose bodies were found buried in or near a forest outside the town in the spring and summer of last year. The police were completely mystified until a servant girl went to the police and made charges against Haletsky. He is alleged to have called at the house where she was employed and to have asked her to go with him to his "mater," whom he represented to be a rich man living in a country house. The way led through the forest, and there he attacked her, but the girl temporarily blinded him and escaped. The dead girls had apparently all been attacked and killed by blows on the head.

A remarkable accident occurred Tuesday near Wildegg, Switzerland. Some tourists were walking through the forest, when they came upon the body of a man who evidently had committed suicide by shooting. The right hand still clutched tightly a revolver. One of the tourists attempted to remove the weapon, and while he was releasing the dead man's fingers from the trigger the revolver went off. The bullet pierced the tourist's chest, and he is fatally wounded.

Following the finding of the body of Henry Meadows in the woods in Wyoming county, W. Va., Sam Bill, a stepson, and Mary Meadows, a daughter, were arrested, charged with murder. The body of Meadows, who was 55 years old, was found hidden in a hole from which a tree had been uprooted and branches had been placed over it. He had been shot in the face with a shotgun. After her arrest, the girl is alleged to have said she did the shooting, but later she acused Bell, it is said. Bell is married and the Meadows girl is only 16 years old.

MANY VISIT ARLINGTON.

Extra Trains Transport Alexandrians to Scene of Unveiling Today.

This has been a gala day among ex-Confederates and many others in Alexandria, and large numbers of our people have spent the afternoon at Arlington where the Confederate Monument was unveiled with appropriate exercises. In addition to regular trains, two specials left this city, the first at one o'clock in the afternoon and the second half an hour later for the accommodation of the members of R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans.

The President, Cabinet members, Senators and Congressmen from all sections of the country attended the ceremonies.

Not since the gathering of Union and Confederate soldiers at Gettysburg last year has there been such an assemblage as was present. While the services were under the auspices of the Daughters of the Confederacy, and although many of the Southern States sent delegations and have contributed financially toward the erection of the monument, the occasion was an event of nation-wide interest.

The monument was turned over to the Government by Mrs. Daisy McLaurin Stevens, president-general of the Daughters of the Confederacy and was accepted in the name of the Government by President Wilson.

Col. Hilary Herbert, Secretary of the Navy under President Cleveland, was master of ceremonies, and Capt. John H. Hickey and Col. John J. Clem were marshals. The Fifth Cavalry Band furnished music.

The program opened with a selection of Southern airs an wdas followed by: Invocation; Dr. Randolph H. McKim; address, Gen. Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans; address, Gen. Washington Gardner, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic; cornet solo, "The Holy City;" address, Col. Board of Aldermen Appropriates Five Thousand Dollars for New Hospital.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Aldermen was held last night for the purpose of receiving the report of the Finance Committee on an ordinance, introduced Tuesday afternoon, donating five thousand dollars to the building fund of a new Alexandria Hospital.

The ordinance as reported by Mr. Field is a follows:

An ordinance appropriating the sum of five thousand dollars $5,000) as a contribution of the city of Alexandria to the building fund of a new hospital for Alexandria, with certain agreements or provisos.

Section 1.—Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, That the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) be, and is hereby, appropriated as a contribution to the building fund of a new hospital for Alexandria.

Section 2.—This appropriation is to be expended in the erection or placing in said hospital of a ward to be known as the "Alexandria City Ward," where are to be treated, free of charge, the indigent sick of the city.

Section 3.—This sum of five thousand dolars $5,000 is to be paid to the Board of Trustees of the Alexandria Hospital, and is available at any time during the fiscal year 1914-1915. Payment, or payments, to be made at such times and in such amounts as may be approved by the Finance Committee of the City Council, and subject to the provisions of section 2 of this ordinance.

Section 4.—This ordinance shall be in force from its passage and approval.

After it had been read the second time Mr. Ballenger moved that it be adopted. The roll was called and the ordinance passed by an unanimous vote.

The board then adjourned.

A meeting of the Common Council will, it is said, be held this week, when that body will concur in the action of the Aldermen. After it shall have been signed by the Mayor, Alexandria city's quota towards the new hospital will appear in the receipts, which will bring the hospital fund virtually up to the forty thousand dollar mark.

READY FOR FESTIVAL.

The annual spring festival of Christ Church Sunday School will be held in the Parish Hall this evening from 7:30 until 9:30. All arrangements for which have been prepared. The especial feature of the evening, in addition to the crowning of the May Queen, will be "The Mistletoe Bough," in pantomine. Mrs. Pickett will sing the solo, and the various parts will be taken by the children. This is an old English song, and it has been many years since it was heard and acted. Those who in the days of "long ago," heard it, will enjoy it again, and those who have not certainly should avail themselves of this opportunity. It may now be termed "a thriller," but, of course, in those days such slang was not thought of.

Blue Serge Suits and Other Fine Outing Clothes

The Blue Serge Suit has a standard value as an outing or summer garment that cannot be discredited or reduced in the slightest degree. We have ready large stocks of fine Blue Serge Suits in many models, a goodly number of which are made expressly for us by Hart, Schaffner & Marx. It is pretty generally conceded that London sets the style; we have the London type and the more conservative also.

$15. to $35. each

Our special $25.00 Blue Serge Suit is a value that far surpasses our best efforts. In former seasons the suit made of this same quality material has been priced at $35.00. The lowering in price is due to change in tariff as the fabric is a fine imported English, the other a modified style.

MINGLING OF THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.

The scenes at Arlington today afforded food for thought to the present generation. While the strains of the airs, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," and the "Star-Spangled Banner," were enthusing the vast assemblage of Americans, hundreds of gray-bearded ex-Confederates, with no apologies to make for their course half a century ago, mingled with former wearers of the blue as though there had never been any friction between them. It was, indeed, a gala day, and one which will leave green spots in the memories of all who participated. President Wilson was there, a representative Virginian, to shake the hands of other sons of the Old Dominion, and to greet people from every section.

Times change and men change with them has often been repeated since the days of the Caesars, and today the truth of the saying was never more apparent.

Over fifty years ago Arlington, the homestead of George Washington Parke Custis and later that of Robert E. Lee, was eagerly coveted by the federal and the Confederate authorities. The former reached there first and the hills of Arlington proved one of the most impregnable defenses of the capital. In the early part of the civil war the Confederates at times were encamped literally within sight of Washington, and Arlington Heights were gazed upon through field glasse with covetous eyes. The wearers of the gray, however, were not destined to take this eminence, and has remained for them to invade and capture the place today, not by the sword, but by the olive branch.

The United States is now one compact country, and, so far as sectional schisms are concerned, there is nothing on the horizon alarming. The old soldiers of the north and south as well as their descendants are proud of their united country, and the ceremonies today incident to the unveiling a Confederate Monument in the main federal cemetery is significant.

We read that when Jacob met Laban, his father-in-law, the former filled with apprehension, fearing the Syrian was bent upon doing him harm, he found Laban in a friendly mood. The two entered into a covenant and with stones erected a pillar which was called Mizpah, which was to be a witness that a friendly compact existed between them. May the Confederate Monument prove to be a Mizpah between the wearers of the blue and gray forever.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Durango, Mex., June 4.—Three decisive engagements with Federal troops between Zacatecas and San Luis Potosi, Mexico, were won by the Constitutionalists on May 30 and 31, according to reports. Col Fernando Reyes, with 600 men of the command of General Carrera Torres, who is investing San Luis Potosi, administered a decisive defeat to a large Federal force at Salinas, and later defeated a force sent from San Luis to reinforce the Salinas garrison. The fighting at Salinas lasted 28 hours, the Federal loss in the battle being 46 privates and four officers. Fourteen Federal officers who were captured were executed.

During a storm near Petersburg, W. Va., Earl Smith, aged 19, son of William Smith, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. Isaac Painter was rendered unconscious. They were at work on a barn when the lightning struck.

Creagertown, Md., a village of 200 inhabitants, 14 miles northwest of Frederick, was nearly wiped out by a fire which raged four hours. A sudden change in the wind when the flames were at their worst saved all that is left of the place.

Archie Armstrong, of Cincinnati, a motorcyclist, was instantly killed and a large number of spectators were injured last night at the Pittsburgh Motordrome, when a machine driven by Armstrong became unmanageable and dashed into the crowd. A number of the injured are in a serious condition.

Mrs. Danske Bedinger Dandridge, author and poet, committed suicide at her home near Shepherdstown, W. Va., about noon, by shooting herself in the right temple with a revolver. It is thought that the act was committed while Mrs. Dandridge's mind was somewhat affected. Mrs. Dandridge was a daughter of the late Henry Bedinger, of Shepherdstown, who was Minister to Denmark under President Buchanan. She was born in Copenhagen.

Four men were killed and a fifth was probably fatally injured last night by an explosion of dynamite at a construction camp on the county road near Monongahela, Pa. Four charges of dynamite had been placed in holes preparatory to blasting today. The men killed, all foreigners, were notified to connect the charges with the electric battery wires before going home. They failed to note that the battery switch had been turned off and when the wire came in contact with the first charge of dynamite there was a terrific explosion.

Nearly 1,000 veterans, representing both sides of the civil war, and many members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy gathered at the New Willard Hotel, Washington, last night to pay tribute to the memory of Jefferson Davis and to witness the conferring of six crosses of honor on Confederate soldiers. One of which was received by Sir Moses Ezekiel of Virginia Military Institute cadets and sculptor of the statue to the Confederate dead unveiled today at Arlington. Senator John Sharp Williams was the principal speaker.

A Coroner's jury in Hickory, Miss., is atttempting to establish the identity of three well-dressed men whose mangled bodies were found early yesterday in the tracks of the Alabama and Vicksburg Railroad.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

BOY'S FATAL FALL.

14-Year-Old Richmond Youth Dies From Broken Skull.

Richmond, June 4.—As a result of a fractured skull and other injuries, received when he fell a distance of thirty feet from the top of a porch in the rear of the store at 1108 Hull street, South Richmond, about 11:15 o'clock yesterday morning, James Kidd, fourteen years old, of 217 East Ninth street, South Richmond, died in the Virginia Hospital in the afternoon.

The boy was employed as office boy by the Yerby Real Estate Company, 1106 Hull street. In the course of a boyish prank the youngster climbed up a rainspout to the roof of the building occupied by the Yerby Company. Two of his little boy companions watched him ascend the roof. From the roof the boy was about to step off to the porch of the adjoining building when the railing of the porch which he had grasped gave way under his weight. The boy fell to the concrete pavement below, a distance of about thirty feet. The back of his head received the force of the blow.

Monument to Civil War Hero.

Bristol, Va.-Tenn., June 3.—The marble shaft, erected at the grave of James Keeling, who single-handed defended the railway bridge at Strawberry Plains, Tennessee against an attack by Federal bridge burners in the Civil War, was unveiled yesterday. Keeling, stationed at one end of the structure, hurled the Federals down the embankment at the end of the bridge one after another, killing three of them with his sword. In the struggle he had his arm cut off.

Dr. C. C. Carson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and Mayor George M. Warren delivered addresses at the unveiling. A chorus of high school girls sang and Miss Elizabeth Drinkard recited.

Howard Smith was found dead last night in the middle of the road near Contee, several miles from Laurel, Md. It is believed he was struck by an automobile.

LEESBURG HORSE SHOW.

Attendance This Year Not as Large as Formerly.

Leesburg, Va., June 4.—In keeping with a long-standing custom, the attendance on the first day of the Leesburg Horse Show was not as large, and society is waiting until tomorrow to make its appearance at the ringside. The weather was ideal for the show, and every class was sent away on schedule time. There was nothing to mar the pleasure of the assemblage with the exception of a painful accident to one of the riders.

In the cross-country class for 4-year-olds and under yesterday morning, Doctor Lew, with Stanley Green up, fell heavily over the first hurdle, and the rider was carried to the local hospital with a broken collarbone.

MEMORIAL DAY.

A procession headed by cadets of Virginia Military Institute, veterans and sons of veterans, marched to the cemetery, where the cadets fired three volleys. The tombs of General Robert E. Lee and Thomas J. (Stonewall) Jackson and graves of Confederates were strewn with flowers.

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Virginia Branch Meets at Norfolk—Alexandrians Figure on Committees.

Norfolk, Va., June 4.—Delegates and visitors to the Virginia Federation of Labor's nineteenth annual convention were welcomed to Norfolk Tuesday morning by Mayor Mayo and representatives of local unions, held two busy sessions during the day and were entertained at night at two smokers and crab feasts, one given by local lodge, No. 11, of the International Machinists' Association and the other at the new Southern Hotel, convention headquarters.

The convention met at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the Odd Fellows' hall for the transaction of general business, and in the afternoon cars left Main and Granby streets at 2:30 o'clock for Ocean View, where the delegates were the guests of Senator John A. Lesner at a German lunch, which was served at the Southern Club.

The convention was called to order in Odd Fellows' Hall at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in the presence of about two hundred members, with W. E. Doherty, of Norfolk, in the chair. Addresses of welcome on behalf of the city and organized labor of Norfolk were made respectively by Mayor Mayo and M. J. Lyons, of the Tailor's Union. The opening prayer was offered by E. W. Gaines.

Negro delegates made their appearance on the floor for the first time for twelve years, being two in number, and both from Portsmouth, members of the Negro Barbers' organization, which is affiliated with the Federation.
